David L. Turner is a Partner with the accounting and litigation services firm of White, Zuckerman, Warsavsky, Luna & Hunt, LLP. Mr. Turner has over thirteen years of litigation consulting experience providing damage analyses involving economic, accounting, financial and bankruptcy issues in a variety of cases including unfair business competition, patent, copyright and trademark infringement, fraud, breach of contract, accounting and attorney malpractice, antitrust, fraudulent conveyances, real estate and construction. Mr. Turner has valued closely-held businesses of all sizes and varieties including manufacturing, retail, wholesale, and service businesses. He has prepared business valuations for: breach of contract cases, dissenting shareholder cases, for estate planning, and for marital dissolution.

Prior to joining White, Zuckerman, Warsavsky, Luna & Hunt, LLP, Mr. Turner was a Senior Associate with Coopers & Lybrand's Financial Advisory Services department where he specialized in litigation, mergers and acquisitions and business reorganization services.

Mr. Turner is a licensed Certified Public Accountant and holds the AICPA's ABV designation (Accredited in Business Valuation). He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA). He is currently in the process of completing the requirements for an Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) designation in business appraisal with the American Society of Appraisers. He has given MCLE presentations to attorneys on a variety of topics including business valuation and lost profit analysis. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of California at Santa Barbara in Business Economics.
